

Seeking Wholeness 2015 FGC Gathering

July 5 to July 11, 2015

Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina

Grow Our Meetings: A New Workshop from FGC

Tuesday, July 7, 3:15pm
Forsyth, Room 214

Come learn more about the new Grow Our Meetings workshop, which focuses on three ways that Friends can invite growth and vitality into our meetings by:

- Growing Our Spirits
- Growing Our Presence
- Growing Our Quaker Community

See what the workshop is all about and how your meeting can participate in an upcoming one-day event!

To learn more, visit <http://bit.ly/GOMgath15>

New Meetings Project: What New Meetings Have to Share with Existing Meetings

Monday, July 6 @ 4:30pm
Forsyth, Room 214

The New Meetings Project (NMP) was developed in response to inquiries from Friends asking for support in starting new worship groups and meetings. Through our work with new meetings (and surveys of newer meetings) we've learned a thing or two. Come learn what advice new meetings have to offer existing meetings – advice that might just lead to renewal!

FGC's New Meetings Project is here to support and nurture the creation of new, vibrant meetings and worship groups.

To learn more, visit <http://bit.ly/nmpinfo>

Seeking Wholeness 2015 FGC Gathering

July 5 to July 11, 2015

Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina

New Meetings Project: “So You Want to Start a Meeting . . .”

Thursday, July 9 @ 4:30pm
Forsyth, Room 214

Have you ever felt even the tiniest nudge to start a new meeting or worship group? Or have you ever started a new meeting or worship group? If so, then come and hear some about the model and some of the tools FGC’s New Meetings Project (NMP) has developed to support such work and to share stories of what you’ve done or found helpful.

FGC’s New Meetings Project is here to support and nurture the creation of new, vibrant meetings and worship groups.

To learn more, visit <http://bit.ly/nmpinfo>