Bible Half-Hour

8:00 am Blue Ridge Multipurpose A&B

This year's Bible Half-Hour will be led by Rubye Braye, a member of Wilmington (NC) Friends Meeting. Together Friends will read scripture related to "wholeness", discuss the meaning and decide how to apply the messages to our lives. Bring your open mind, open heart, and willingness to hear, share and serve.

Daily Extended Meeting for Worship

9:00 – 11:45 am Blue Ridge 370

Ongoing Silent Spaces on Campus

8:00 am – 10:00 pm Scott Lounge 7th Floor (near 746)

Daily Extended Worship each am (see above).

Meeting for Worship under the care of FLGBTQC

4:30 pm Blue Ridge Multipurpose Room A&B

A Labyrinth

Starting Monday afternoon, a labyrinth will be set up in the Intramural Field. Labyrinths have been walked as a spiritual practice since the earliest days of humanity. In a labyrinth, there is one way in to a center space and then the same way out, without dead ends or confusing turns. Each experience of the labyrinth is unique. However, not unlike meeting for worship, the more thoroughly one prepares by praying for openness and revelation, the more rewarding the experience usually is.

Tuesday July 7 3:15-4:15 pm	Lifting up in Prayer through Worship Sharing the concerns of Trans-Women of Color Harassment and hate violence are serious realities both for transgender communities, and for people/communities of color. People whose identities intersect with both of these communities are even more likely to experience violence and early death, trans women of color in particular. Using a video clip and/or a piece of writing (TBD) to get us started, through worship sharing and the help of spirit, Friends will explore various ways in which we are called to live into our peace testimony to help support and affirm the lives of trans women of color. Facilitators: Clark Reddy and Paul Ricketts UC Cardinal
Wednesday, July 8 1:30 pm	“Consider the Lilies”: Worship with Attention to Wonder This worship will include a mix of David's nature images, guided meditation, queries and worship sharing. In a manner similar to visio divina (divine seeing), this worship will use photographs of nature's wonders to open us in new ways to the Spirit moving within and among us. Forsyth 214

Thursday July 9 3:15-4:15 pm	Meeting for Worship with Concern for Racial Healing This is an opportunity to worship as a group under the concern for racial healing for the Religious Society of Friends and the world. Facilitators: Janice Domanik, John Meyer, Clark Reddy, and Paul Ricketts Blue Ridge Multipurpose A&B
Friday July 10 3:15-4:15 pm	Meeting for Worship to Lift Up Concerns for Young Men of Color Events during the past year have heightened our awareness of the precarious position of young men of color in our society. They have been killed by vigilantes; they have been stopped and frisked by law enforcement; they are disproportionately imprisoned for violation of drug laws. They disproportionately fill our prisons and jails. We meet together in worship to lift up a concern for the collective violence— direct and structural—we have brought against these young men and to ask Spirit to tender our hearts and open the way for us to witness against these injustices. Facilitators: Kri Burkander and Paul Ricketts Blue Ridge Multipurpose A&B
